

Because
quality of life matters.

Realm of Caring is an independent, high impact 501c3 organization, redefining cannabis through:

Innovative research

Revolutionary education

Empowering global community connections

Realm of Caring is here for free one on one support with our trained and dedicated care team. How we help:

- Cannabis and hemp resources
- Choosing products
- Dosing and administration guidance
- Involvement in advocacy efforts to ensure access

We invite you to join our observational research registry (ORR) for both cannabis users and non-users to help legitimize this form of therapy. To date, we have published 4 peer-reviewed articles with this valuable data! Joining is simple:

- Register as a client & take your baseline survey
- Every 3 months you will be emailed a follow-up survey
- After each survey is completed you will have the opportunity to choose a prize in the form of coupon codes or gift cards!
